

Re-New Brooklyn Presents:

The Best Main Street: A Best-Practices Workshop

on Commercial Corridor Improvement

May 23, 2007

9:00-11:00 am

175 Remsen St, Suite 350

Brooklyn, NY 11201

FREE

What should a revitalized streetscape look like? What assets and products are available to improve lighting, seating, and sanitation in your neighborhood? What types of funding are available to renovate storefronts, and what is the best way to interact with merchants and property owners throughout this process? Come to this workshop to hear an experienced panel of architects, consultants, and grantmakers speak about the work that is being done on commercial corridor improvement in New York and beyond.

Some of our presenters include:

- Mary Brennan, Community Preservation Corporation
- Susan Doban, Architect, PC
- Bruce Pienky, CitySolve

Participation in this event is free, but registration is required. To register, please contact Matthew Rao at (718) 522-4600 x25 or mr Rao@bedc.org.

Re-New Brooklyn is an initiative of the Brooklyn Economic Development Corporation (BEDC) that seeks to empower local stakeholders to bring about change in their communities. In partnership with the City's Department of Small Business Services (SBS) and the US Economic Development Administration (EDA), Re-New Brooklyn works to strengthen these organizations by providing them with technical assistance through workshops, consultations, supplementary services, and a resource center.
